

Prepoznatljiva pumpa Viktorija zdenac koju Zagrepčani od milja zovu Željezni Francek, nekad se je upotrebljavala za potrebe domaćinstava, a danas je simbol glavnog grada. Istražite Zagreb i mali dio njegove street art scene, a na pumpama se poslužite pitkom vodom.

The distinguishing Victoria Well, affectionately called Željezni Francek (Iron Franz) by the people of Zagreb, was once used for household needs, whereas today it is a symbol of the capital. Explore Zagreb and a small part of its street art scene, and use drinking water at the pumps.
